Parents - England only

IPP_Q1. Personal, social, health and economic education (PSHE) is the school subject that teaches children how to stay safe from harm (including sexual abuse and unsafe contact from strangers, both online and offline). To what extent do you agree or disagree with the following statement? The government should ensure that all pupils are given PSHE lessons about staying safe from abuse and unsafe contact from strangers, both online and offline.

Unweighted base: All parents of children aged 18 or under in England (1,126)
